Course Description

To meet the minimum requirement for a successful completion grade (SC), students must engage in an education abroad experience for a minimum of 30 hours during one academic term; during the experience, students must travel outside of the United States and its territories.

Student Learning Outcomes

To receive a SC grade, students must:

- Demonstrate increased awareness of different cultural identities in the context of social/political/historical structures on which the experience is focused
- Develop new perspectives on their own cultures, as well as abilities to think critically about their own values, belief, and goals
- Develop a set of skills to manage challenges of daily life in a culture different from their own
- Demonstrate gained skills in communicating and/or engaging across cultural differences
- Articulate the relevance of their experience to their academic work and professional future

Assessment of Student Learning

Students are eligible to receive transcript-visible notation for a non-credit undergraduate education abroad experience after satisfying the following requirements, which are to be verified by an OSU faculty member:

- Thirty (30) hours of student engagement in a locality outside the United States and its territories

- Regular engagement throughout the experience with local individuals, groups, or organizations in an academic or professional capacity.
- Regular reflection throughout the experience on progress, challenges, and accomplishment Formats of reflection include, but not limited to, short video/photo essays, blog posts, and journal entries.
- A culminating presentation to the faculty who supervises/oversees the said education abroad experience , which summarizes their academic and/or professional outcomes
  A written report documenting satisfactory completion of the above student learning outcomes

Statement Regarding Students with Disabilities
Accommodations for students with disabilities are determined and approved by Disability Access Services (DAS). If you, as a student, believe you are eligible for accommodations but have not obtained approval please contact DAS immediately at 541-737-4098 or at http://ds.oregonstate.edu. DAS notifies students and faculty members of approved academic accommodations and coordinates implementation of those accommodations. While not required, students and faculty members are encouraged to discuss details of the implementation of individual accommodations.

Accessibility
If you require accommodations please contact Disability Access Services (DAS).

Additionally, Canvas, the learning management system through which this course is offered, provides a vendor statement certifying how the platform is accessible to students with disabilities.

Expectations for Student Conduct
Student conduct is governed by the university's policies, as explained in the Student Conduct Code.

Academic Integrity
Students are expected to comply with all regulations pertaining to academic honesty. For further information, visit Student Conduct and Community Standards, or contact the office of Student Conduct and Mediation at 541-737-3656.
