It's been one year, and what a year.

One year of working from home, away from our beautiful campus.
One year of uncertainty, and worry.
One year of frustration, and sadness.
One year of kindness, and empathy.
One year of resilience, and future hope.

What have I learned this year?

I really like leggings.

But seriously, I've learned that the world keeps moving forward, even when it feels like it's going backward. That the overwhelming majority of people are kind and good. That there are helpers, everywhere. Sometimes it is just a matter of asking.

A sincere, and heartfelt, thank you to all of you for making this crazy year bearable. We are all going through this and it's not been an easy road, but I consider myself lucky, and thankful, to work with such a great community of people.

- Sara Hoyt, Scheduler, and occasional deep thinker.

CANVAS page for Schedulers

<https://canvas.oregonstate.edu/courses/1836431>

Currently focused on CLSS training and resources, and we will be adding more scheduling training sessions soon. This page includes recordings of the CLSS trainings, and other useful CLSS information to help you navigate this new system. If you did not attend a CLSS training, you must watch one of the training videos to be given access to make edits in CLSS.

The transition to CLSS is a learning curve, for all of us. We are here to help. Every Tuesday and Friday from 1:00-2:00, we are hosting “CLSS office hours” on Zoom. We have the ability to set up break out rooms, so your questions can be addressed one on one.

Dates and times are subject to change or cancellation. Please check the link to find updated information on scheduled sessions, links and passwords for Zoom.
